England is indirectly prepared for this con-tingency by previous negostions, but still the present demand may excite a Front and Etna streets, on the 21st of January, temporary feeling and lead to some difficulty in the recognition of Mr. Buchanan's successor. It may also embarrass Lord Palmerston's official tenure. From positive developments this course is inevitable, and must be sustained. Our plucky neighbor of the Newport Daily News discourses, concerning the Cincinnati Enquirer, as follows:

If the Cincinnati Enquirer should come over on the Kentucky shore and advocate its pro-slavery sentiments, the really Democratic News would soon run it out, as it has done all the other pro-slavery Democratic presses here.
